Camp New Knoxville
Nov 1/62

Lieut Carlton

Dear Sir I recd

yours of the 29th to day am Sure you have come to the conclusion to resign for I have no doubt you can be blowed all set her in a little time & rest assured you shall be if I resign to do it I enclose you Papers again to you hoping you will reconsider if not you must make them different as they are you could not get an honorable discharge you should refer them to Brig Gen S Williams you can see the form & saying it over you from the Lieut of the Saigean well give you the certificate if not overland & I will get and for you if you insist on leaving this will kind you necessarily some days & perhaps you will blame me but in this as in the other of our only, say I am sorry for I did not intend to put anything in the way of your doing as you chose Except advise I went to have told you the necessary part & think I did at Hovissus landing I should have done so in Alford six but you agreed to meet me in it & I forgot to tell you father we moved from our camp yesterday morning put to this place this afternoon Monday ^{evening} at 5 in the morning least the rain the bus has brisk surrounding the day but do not think we shall hardly fight I think they will see time will tell if you determine to resign let me know at once so that they can

Not get ahead an Common Enemy May you must go out Hunc shy & if it is known at H Quarter before I do they may cum another dady but Enugh in my count Believe me your friend & Well wisher

W. W. Howe
Ps you see I am in a hurry

Tell me Duxton I recd his letter to say could do nothing before as the Col of the 121 was away Lee has partly got the plan
I shake with the Col yesterday I think there is a chance he knows Duxton his name is Duxton was Lieut in a battery I think he would do well to come here & see him & rite him at once would rite him but you must the time now give him my regards & Obly
W. W. Howe
